

FLORIDA LAW WEEKLY SEX CRIMES EDITION BY DENNIS NICEWANDER

Vol. 33, No. 8, February 22, 2008

State v. Perkins, 33 Fla. L. Weekly D510 (Fla. 5th DCA 2008):

Prosecutor was entitled to rely on certified copy of defendant's driving record in signing under oath information charging defendant with driving while license suspended or revoked, with two prior convictions, where no additional testimony or evidence would have enhanced requirement that information be supported by sworn testimony and prosecutor swore to his good faith in bringing felony charge.

Discussion: This case contains some good discussion about the admissibility of driving records without having to call a witness. It may be helpful for your failure to register cases.

Sturges v. State, 33 Fla. L. Weekly D509 (Fla. 4th DCA 2008):

Defendant convicted of aggravated assault with deadly weapon was not eligible for sex offender probation.

Mann v. State, 33 Fla. L. Weekly D510 (5th DCA 2008):

Defendant who pleaded guilty as charged to three counts of lewd or lascivious battery and one count of lewd or lascivious molestation could not be sentenced pursuant to sentencing guidelines scoresheet that scored victim injury points for penetration as to all four counts, absent a specific finding that penetration occurred, where information charged defendant on three counts with union or, in the alternative, penetration or union.